Gambling - Fingerprint

Specimens received

July 13, 1982

Specimen:

Q15 Various-sized sheets of paper and several envelopes bearing handwritten notations

Result of examination:

Specimen Q15 contains material pertaining to a gambling operation accepting wagers on three-digit numbers. The submitted material is of the type which would be found in possession of an individual occupying a managerial position in this operation.

Specimen Q15 contains $4,729.00 in wagers accepted for May 21, 1980. These wagers were accepted by at least 6 writers handled by "Lopez," a controller for this gambling operation. Lopez also receives a 45% commission on the amount of wagers accepted by these writers.

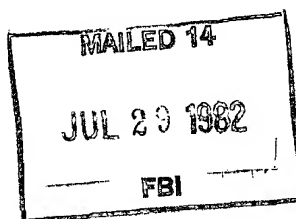

AUG 2 1982

A comparison of the submitted material in Q15 with the material in Laboratory report numbers 00722002 G RN, dated August 19, 1980, 00916045 G/D RN UD, dated November 12, 1980,

Narrative of Offense:

On approximately January 28, 1983, (the exact date is unknown) Joseph Arnold telephoned "Joe" Ken Eto at Eto's residence in Bolingbrook, Illinois. The substance of this telephone message was a directive from Arnold to Eto to meet with Joseph DiVarco at Poor Vic's Car Lot located at 4800 West North Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Eto followed these instructions and approximately a day later met with DiVarco at the car lot. Eto was instructed by DiVarco at this time to meet with Vincent Solano, Eto's direct superior in Chicago Organized Crime.

Eto proceeded to call Solano and then meet with him at the International House of Pancakes (IHOP) located at 6501 West North Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois. During this meeting, Solano indicated his concern about Eto's pending hearing concerning Eto's gambling business. Solano further sought information as to Eto's desire to plead to a stipulated bench trial and the consequences of such an action. Solano appeared very nervous and "paranoid" during the entire conversation, actually making several accusations to Eto indicating his distrust of Eto. Finally, Solano directed Eto to allow John Gattuso and Jasper Campise to look at Eto's restaurant which was for sale at the time. This was in spite of the indication by Eto to Solano that Eto had a prospective client for his restaurant. Solano insisted and told Eto that DiVarco would arrange a time for Eto to see Gattuso and Campise.

Eto returned to Poor Vic's Car Lot in an effort to contact DiVarco so that Eto's meeting with Gattuso and Campise could be arranged. Although DiVarco was not at the car lot, Eto met him shortly thereafter at Campise's social club located at 4818 West North Avenue, adjacent to the car lot. DiVarco told Eto he would arrange the meeting with Campise and Gattuso.

CG 183A-1795

On February 1, 1983 Arnold called Eto, again at Eto's residence, and told him to meet Gattuso and Campise the next day. It was agreed that Eto would first meet with Gattuso and Campise at the Cozy Town Restaurant, 8000 Ogden Avenue, Lyons, Illinois and proceed from there to Eto's Restaurant, which was empty at the time. Although Eto did meet with Gattuso and Campise, Gattuso requested another meeting to show the property to an individual Gattuso described as his "backer."

Eto and Gattuso met several days later at Eto's restaurant. Eto, [redacted] waited for Gattuso; however, Gattuso did not appear on time and Eto telephoned Arnold to determine Gattuso's whereabouts. Arnold informed Eto that he should wait, for Gattuso would arrive. Gattuso did arrive shortly thereafter and informed Eto [redacted] and he had been unable to contact his "backer" and therefore could not have him present at this meeting. Eto later rented his property to other interested parties.

On February 9, 1983 Arnold again called Eto at his residence, this time telling Eto to meet DiVarco at Oldsters for Youngsters, a social club at 847 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, at 11:00 A.M. on Thursday, February 10, 1983. Eto did meet with DiVarco and Arnold at Oldsters for Youngsters (OY) on February 10, 1983 at about 11:00 A.M., receiving a parking ticket issued by the Chicago Police Department for illegal parking at that location. At this meeting DiVarco told Eto to meet Campise and Gattuso at the American Legion Post (ALP) located at 3603 North Narragansett, Chicago, at 7:30 P.M. on Thursday, February 10. Eto, Campise and Gattuso were then to meet with Solano and have dinner.

Eto arrived at the American Legion Post at approximately 7:30 P.M. on February 10 and saw Gattuso waiting near the door to the post. By the time Eto parked his car, Gattuso and Campise were walking toward him and it was decided to travel in Eto's car to meet Solano. Gattuso sat in the rear seat while Campise sat in the front passenger seat. Both Campise and Gattuso wore gloves.

Eto was given directions by Campise and drove to a parking lot behind a building at 7129 West Grand Avenue, Chicago. Eto had been told by Campise that they were to meet Solano in a small restaurant nearby and instructed where to park.

Before Eto could exit the car he was shot three times in the back of the head. Eto acted as if he were mortally wounded while Gattuso and Campise fled his auto. Eto allowed several minutes to pass before he rose from the seat into which he had fallen to look around. Seeing no one, Eto walked from his vehicle to the Terminal Pharmacy at 7029 West Grand Avenue and obtained police and ambulance assistance, being transported to Northwestern Hospital.

[redacted] was advised of the identity of the Agent and the official nature of the interview [redacted] advised as to the identity of the police officer accompanying Special Agent (SA) [redacted] Violent Crimes, 5555 West Grand Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, [redacted]

[redacted] questioned as to his telephonic report on February 17, 1983, to the Chicago Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) regarding his interception of a mobile phone transmission regarding the shooting of Ken Eto.

[redacted] using his Bearcat 150 Scanner, at approximately 1:10 a.m. on February 17, 1983, he intercepted a mobile telephone conversation which possibly related to the shooting of Ken Eto. [redacted] conversation was between a male and a female. He stated that the male appeared to be intoxicated. He also stated that based upon the context of the conversation the male appeared to be the one in an automobile.

b7D

[redacted] during the conversation the male indicated that he was in some sort of trouble and made reference to an individual who was shot three times in the head. While making inquiries of the male, the female mentioned the named Eto. To such inquiries, the male responded that he was involved, that he had his passport and that it was necessary for him to leave the country.

[redacted] female requested that the male telephonically contact her from his residence. To this request, the male responded that he could not return to his residence because the FBI would be watching it.

[redacted] during the conversation the name, Rich, was mentioned. [redacted] could not remember, however, whether such name was mentioned by the male or the female.

Investigation on 2/17/83 at Chicago, Illinois File # Chicago 183A-866
by SA [redacted] /kjh Date dictated 2/21/83

b7C

Following the above conversation, it appeared [redacted] that there was an immediate attempt by someone to make another mobile telephone call. [redacted] the party making the call could have been the same as the male discussed above. [redacted] a pre-recorded conversation advised the caller that the call could not be completed because there were no lines available. [redacted] the recording referred to these lines as "overseas" or "out-of-the-country" lines. [redacted] the recording identified itself as [redacted] [redacted] he believes that the word "operator" preceeded such numbers.

b7D

[redacted] in the original conversation between the male and female, the male advised that he had been trying to call "the store."

[redacted] he did not make note of the frequency on which he intercepted the above messages. He further stated that knowing such frequency would not assist investigators in determining the mobile telephone operator, because no frequency is unique to any particular operator. [redacted] when one is making a mobile telephone call, the caller transmits on the next available mobile telephone frequency.

On February 17, 1983, Stephen J. Connolly, John Miller and Paul Nealis all of the States Attorney's Office of Chicago, Illinois and Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of the Chicago Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) contacted Ken Eto and informed Eto of the official identity of the interviewing Agent and of the States Attorneys. Eto was advised that the interview would concern itself with the attempted murder of Eto on February 10, 1983. Eto then stated as follows:

Eto stated that approximately ten days before the shooting Joe Arnold called him and asked him to meet Joe DiVarco at "Poor Vic's Car Lot". Eto stated that he went to see DiVarco and DiVarco informed him that Vince Solano was concerned about Eto's apparent lack of communication between himself and Solano. Eto stated that he told DiVarco that he was doing nothing currently to report on or to tell Solano about and that he had no operations going now.

b7C

Eto stated that it was common knowledge at this time to many of his acquaintances and friends that Eto believed that he could not "beat" the FBI case concerning his gambling. Eto further stated that [redacted] told him that he believed that the FBI case was not one that Eto could beat. Eto stated that he believed that if he pled to the case that he would receive less time. [redacted]

Eto further stated that he believed that if he were to go to trial on this matter, and even to appeal, the only result of the methods would be to postpone the time that he would be going to jail. Eto stated that money was not the important factor but that the decision to plea bargain was made following the decision by the court against Eto denying the quashing of a particular warrant in that case. Eto stated that it was decided between himself and his lawyer that he would plead guilty to a stipulated bench trial.

Eto stated that following his discussion with DiVarco at Poor Vic's Car Lot, he telephoned Vince Solano at the "Union Hall" which Eto stated had a telephone number of 237-7535. Eto went on to state that he called Solano the day after meeting with DiVarco at Poor Vic's Car Lot and that this was approximately eight or nine days before the shooting. Eto further described this telephone call as being made from a pay phone to Solano's office at the Union Hall.

Eto stated that after contacting Solano at the Union Hall, he went to meet Solano at approximately 11:00 or 12:00 that same day. Eto stated that he met Solano at the International House of Pancakes (IHOP) located at Belmont and slightly west of Central Avenue in Chicago. Eto stated that when he met Solano, Solano was alone and Eto also was alone. Eto stated that as he got out of his automobile he saw Solano and walked with him on the sidewalk for some distance. Eto stated that Solano was walking differently then he often had, that is, Eto stated that Solano was walking with his face down and not with an erect posture which was his normal stance. Eto stated that the topics of conversation included a discussion between Solano and Eto concerning his current Federal case and that Eto was going to plead guilty to a stipulated bench and that he believed the sentencing was going to be on February 25, 1983. Eto stated that Solano's comment to this discussion was "I thought I told you to take a trial". Eto stated that he did not ever recall Solano ever suggesting that he should take a trial, but that Eto would if Solano asked him to do so. Eto stated that Solano also asked during the conversation what the definition of a stipulated bench (stip bench) was and Eto stated to him that that indicated neither guilty or innocence but would preserve Eto's rights to appeal any motions made during the trial.

Eto stated that Solano then said that he had three choices: Solano told Eto that he could either "do your time", appeal the case or "run away". Eto stated that he explained to Solano that he was being held for two counts and that each count was penalized by a maximum of five years. Eto told Solano that he was not going to run away and Solano's response was "appeal it". Eto stated that he indicated to Solano that that would be satisfactory to him. At this point in the conversation and in the walk on the sidewalk Eto stated that Solano made a movement as if he was to turn around and return toward the ILOP and Eto's vehicle. Eto stated that he believed that when Solano began to make a move indicating his return to the ILOP, that he began to turn and return toward the ILOP. Solano stated at this point "what are you looking back for". Eto stated "I thought we were going back" and Solano stated that they were not doing so and continued to walk on.

Eto stated that Solano wanted to know more about Eto's club located in Lyons, Illinois. Eto stated that he told Solano that he had a very good offer from a good prospect from La Grange whom Eto described as [redacted] Jimmy INU. Eto further stated that [redacted] one of these individuals owns two other restaurants known as "Gee Wilikers" and "In Cahoots". Eto stated that he explained to Solano that these individuals had backgrounds in the restaurant business and it would do well in that location. Solano replied by stating that Johnny Gattuso had a backer who could provide money and would back him in the pizza business in that location of Eto's and that Gattuso was interested in renting the building. Eto stated that Solano also indicated that Jay Campise would be the partner of Gattuso and that he (Eto) should get in touch with Joe DiVarco in an effort to see Johnny Gattuso concerning this business.

At this point in the conversation Eto indicated that the restaurant and the property was actually [redacted] Eto further stated that he interpreted Solano's discussion as a request that Eto do a favor by allowing Gattuso to view the property. Eto further stated that although he had owned the property since 1974, he had only had the restaurant there since August of 1982 and that this restaurant had been a night club [redacted]

Eto stated that at this point in the conversation he and Solano returned to Eto's car and that while so doing Eto had his hands in his coat pockets the entire time. Eto stated that when they reached the approximate area of his vehicle, Solano asked him what he had in his pockets and Eto stated that he withdrew one of his hands and showed Solano his cigarettes. Solano stated to him at this time that "I thought I saw something". Eto stated that Solano's behavior during this entire conversation was very unusual and that he seemed "nervous and paranoid" and very suspicious. Eto stated that the entire conversation lasted approximately ten minutes but that it was not unusual for conversations of this type to occur and that walks with Solano and conversations were fairly routine between himself and Solano.

Eto stated that he went to see Joe DiVarco at Poor Vic's Car Lot in an effort to get in touch with John Gattuso. Eto stated that when he arrived there he saw one of DiVarco's salesman who told him that DiVarco would return to Poor Vic's Car Lot at approximately 1:30 p.m. in the afternoon and that DiVarco was currently at the "baths". Eto stated that rather than staying at DiVarco's car lot he went to Jay Campise's club which was located just around the corner to wait for DiVarco. Eto stated that when he arrived at Campise's club, Campise was there and that he (Eto) said hello to him and that he had coffee and began waiting to return to Poor Vic's Car Lot and meet DiVarco. However, Eto stated, shortly after sitting down for his coffee at Campise's club, DiVarco came into the same club and stated that he had skipped the "baths".

Eto stated that he told DiVarco that he had seen Solano and that he understood that John Gattuso wanted to see his club in Lyons. Eto asked DiVarco to set up an appointment with John Gattuso so that he might see the club. Eto stated that DiVarco then told him that he had been told by Solano that Jay Campise would be Gattuso's partner in this venture and that he would set up the meeting.

Eto stated that either that evening or the next evening he was called at home by Joe Arnold and Arnold informed him that John Gattuso was going to meet with him along with Jay Campise the next morning at "Cozy Town". Eto explained that Cozy Town was a restaurant near his Lyons property approximately a half a block away on Ogden Avenue.

Eto stated that the next day he went to Cozy Town and awaited the arrival of Gattuso and Campise. Eto stated that Gattuso and Campise came to the restaurant together and that they sat down at the same table with Eto. Eto stated that he explained to Gattuso and Campise that he already had a good leasee for the place and questioned why Johnny Gattuso would want to have a pizza parlor in that area. Eto stated that he explained to them that there was a pizza parlor just down the street from that location and that it was not doing well. Additionally, Eto stated that he said to Gattuso and Campise that Barones Pizza had been in that same location and had not been able to do business at all. Eto then said that he told them that the people in the city of Lyons would not support another pizza restaurant in the city.

Eto stated that at this point in the conversation Gattuso told him that he was doing Eto a favor by taking the property off his hands. Eto stated that he thought that Gattuso was referring to Eto's upcoming jail term and that by having a renter in the property he (Gattuso) was doing Eto a favor. Eto stated that Gattuso did want to see the property and Campise was of the opinion that it wasn't necessary at that time. However, it was decided that they would walk the approximate half block to the club and view it. Eto stated that this was accomplished and that Gattuso said it was a very nice place once he was there. Eto stated that Gattuso told him that he would like to have his "backer" see the place and that his backer's name was Tom [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Eto said that he then informed Campise and Gattuso that it would have to be soon if they wanted an opportunity to rent because of the other impending deal for the property already established by Eto. Eto said that Gattuso then told him that he would have his backer see the place the following day at 10:00.

Eto stated that at this same time the radiator in his automobile had been leaking and that he had noticed it several days ago. Eto said that he went to an auto shop located on Archer Avenue in what he believed was Summit, Illinois at about 2:00 p.m. on the same day as he had talked with Gattuso and Campise. Eto said that he told the operator of the shop that the shop had put in a radiator in his car and that radiator needed fixing. Eto stated that the operator placed a can of "No Leak" in the radiator and asked Eto to bring the vehicle in for repair the next morning about 9:00 a.m.

Eto stated that upon arriving home after being at the radiator shop he asked [redacted] to follow him the next day to the radiator shop, drop off their vehicle and drive Eto in her car to the club where he was going to meet someone. Eto stated [redacted] would be fine and it was agreed upon.

Eto said that the next day [redacted] follow him to the radiator shop where he dropped off his vehicle. Eto stated that they parked their vehicle next to the club facing Ogden Avenue and sat in conversation for some time. Eto stated that he believed that this was either Thursday or Friday morning approximately one week before the shooting and that by 10:15 Gattuso and his "backer" had not appeared. Eto recalled that the weather was very poor that day and he went into this club at about 10:20 and called Joe Arnold. Eto remembers that he was to contact Joe Arnold if he needed to get in touch with John Gattuso. Eto stated that he called Joe Arnold at the club known as Oldsters For Youngsters with a telephone number of 757-9516 and that Arnold himself answered. Eto explained to Arnold that Gattuso had not shown up for their appointment at 10:00 and Arnold stated that he had not heard from Gattuso and believed that he was still going to keep the appointment.

Eto stated that he returned to his car where he sat talking [redacted] until approximately 10:30 at which time Gattuso arrived in the parking lot of the club in Lyons. Eto stated that although he did not pay specific attention to the vehicle that Gattuso was driving he believed it to be a small orange vehicle, which Eto described as a "beater" and possibly a V.I. Eto stated that later when talking [redacted] believed that the vehicle was a Chevrolet Camaro.

Eto stated that Gattuso pulled his vehicle past the Eto's car and parked it in the parking lot. Eto stated that he got out of his car as did Gattuso and that they both entered the small vestibule area of the club in Lyons [redacted]

[redacted] Gattuso further stated that he could not get in touch with his Jacker and that those were the reasons that he was late. He further stated to Eto that he would contact Eto later. Eto stated that he then told Gattuso that Gattuso should take his telephone number and get in touch with Eto over the weekend, since the other deal for the property was pending. Eto informed Gattuso that if he did not hear from Gattuso over the weekend he would consummate the deal with the other individuals. Eto stated that Gattuso took out his wallet and from it produced a piece of paper upon which he wrote Eto's telephone number. Eto stated that at this point he noticed a badge in Gattuso's wallet and Gattuso told him that it was nothing to worry about.

On February 7, 1983, Monday evening, Eto stated that he had not received any contact with Gattuso so he leased the club to the other individuals. Eto explained that he utilized the services of an attorney [redacted] for this transaction

[redacted] Eto further explained that the lease was sent to the attorney for the leasee and would be picked up signed from the leasee's attorney. Eto stated that he would then receive indication that the lease needed to be signed. Eto explained that his [redacted] would then have to be notified to come to Chicago to sign the lease, [redacted]

Eto stated that on Wednesday night, February 9, 1983, between the hours of approximately 5:00 and 8:00 p.m., Joe Arnold called him and informed him to meet Joe DiVarco at the club called Oldsters For Youngsters at approximately 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, the following day. Eto was informed that possibly John Gattuso would be in attendance as well.

Eto stated that on Thursday, February 10, 1983, he proceeded from his home and stopped in Lyons at a coffee shop for coffee since he was early for the appointment. Eto stated that after leaving the coffee shop in Lyons, he arrived at approximately 10:30 to 11:00 in the area of Oldsters For Youngsters and parked his car. Eto stated that he received a Chicago Police Department parking ticket because of an illegal parking of his car at that time.

Eto stated that when he entered Oldsters For Youngsters he saw Joe DiVarco, Joe Arnold and an individual who "hung around" that area named "Pete". Eto described Pete as a Greek who was a bartender [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Eto stated that Arnold informed them that he was going to Michigan Avenue to run an errand and he placed his coat on and left the area. Eto stated that he then sat with Joe DiVarco and talked about the deal on the club in Lyons. Eto stated that he informed DiVarco that he had already signed the deal with the other party since he had not heard from John Gattuso. Eto stated that DiVarco told him at this point that he was to meet John Gattuso and Jay Campise at the American Legion Hall located at Addison and Narragansett Streets in Chicago at approximately 7:30 p.m. this evening. Eto was further informed that the reason for this meeting was for Gattuso and Campise to take Eto to have dinner with Vince Solano.

Eto stated that following his conversation with DiVarco that he left the Oldsters For Youngsters Club believing that he was going to be killed. Eto stated that he believed this based on the fact that Solano's actions had been very strange, that to place a pizza restaurant at his club in Lyons made no sense and that it would be unusual for him to have dinner with Vince Solano and particularly unusual to be taken to have dinner with Vince Solano.

Eto stated that after leaving Oldsters For Youngsters he drove in his car for some time trying to resolve what he was going to do and determined that he would follow through with the meeting as planned for that evening. Eto stated that he arrived at home at about 3:00 in the afternoon in Bolingbrook [REDACTED]

Eto stated that he left his home in Bolingbrook and arrived at the American Legion Hall as instructed at 7:30 p.m. Eto stated that when he arrived at the American Legion Hall he noticed that John Gattuso was standing in the doorway of that hall and that when Gattuso saw him driving in his vehicle he went into the doorway. Eto explained that he parked his car approximately 30 feet from the American Legion Hall and that he got out of his car. As he got to the sidewalk both Gattuso and Campise were already heading toward him on the same sidewalk. Eto stated that Gattuso took off his glove on his right hand as did Campise and shook Eto's hand. Eto stated that all three men then began walking towards Eto's car at which time Eto asked whose car they would drive in to the restaurant and Campise suggested "why not yours".

Eto stated that he opened the passenger side door and Gattuso got in the back seat on the passenger side and that Campise occupied the passenger seat in the front of the vehicle. After Eto got in the car in the driving position he asked where the restaurant was and Campise indicated that it was a small Italian restaurant near Harlem and Grand Avenues in Chicago. Campise further instructed Eto to take Narragansett Street to Grand, turn right and go toward Harlem. Eto stated that during this time Gattuso did not say anything. Eto said that while he was driving toward the Italian restaurant he looked into the back seat to ask John Gattuso why he had not called Eto concerning the property in Lyons over the weekend and Gattuso apparently indicated to him that he had been busy [] during that time.

Eto stated when they arrived in the area of Harlem and Grand Avenues Campise located the approximate area of the restaurant and Gattuso stated that there was a small parking lot entered by an alleyway that would be convenient to the restaurant. Eto stated that he drove into the parking lot and there saw what he called "a beater". Eto stated that this beater was a vehicle that he thought was an old, possibly beige, large, two door vehicle parked in the middle of the parking lot possibly against a fence. Eto stated that he did not see any individuals in that vehicle as he glanced at it momentarily. Eto stated that he was driving in the parking lot and Campise stated that he should park at a specific point so that they would not have to walk so far to get to the restaurant. Eto stated that he complied, stopped the car and put it in park. Eto stated that he then heard a gunshot and felt an impact after hearing the loud noise. Eto stated that he heard a second and third gunshots and felt the second and third impacts as well. Eto stated that he remembers thinking at this time that he was not unconscious and decided to fall towards the passenger side of the car, shake and appear as if he was dying and then dead. Eto stated that after doing so he heard the passenger side door slam and heard the sound of feet running away from the vehicle. Eto stated that he remained in this position for one or two minutes but that he did not hear any other vehicles start or move away from the area during this time.

Eto stated that after remaining for one or two minutes lying on the seat of his car he got up and looked around and noticed that no one was either in his car or in the parking lot. Eto stated that he got out of his vehicle and walked in the direction of the other vehicle but that vehicle was gone. Eto stated that he went toward Grand Avenue and located a pharmacy where he asked the individuals in the pharmacy to call for help. Eto stated that shortly thereafter an ambulance arrived as did the Chicago Police Department and he was taken to the hospital.

[redacted] contacted and interviewed at his place of employment. He was advised that he was being interviewed concerning repair work which his company did on a 1976 Ford Torino belonging to Ken Eto around the beginning of 1983.

[redacted] on January 3, 1983, his company received a telephone call stating that a motorist was stuck on the northbound Stevenson Expressway, one mile west of First Avenue, and needed a tow. On January 30, 1984, [] telephonically contacted Special Agent (SA) [] at the offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in response to a business card and previous telephone conversation SA [] had with []. [] was attempting to locate any information that he had concerning a telephone call that he had made at the bequest of "JOE" KEN ETO in February of 1983. [] then stated as follows:

[] "JOE" KEN ETO had stopped at his business [] on February of 1983. [] ETO had owed [] some money for work done by Rite Light and indicated [] that he (ETO) would be selling his business in Lyons, Illinois, and would be able to pay [] the money that ETO owed.

[] ETO suggested to him that he contact the new owners for the restaurant in Lyons, that ETO was selling, in an effort to obtain that sign business for the new business there. [] did in fact call the new owners of the business in Lyons, but that he could not recall at this time who that individual was. [] was able to locate the design that his firm came up with for the new business and that the business was going to be called [].

[] did not believe that he called on the same day that ETO was present in his office. Rather, [] stated, he believed that he called several days later and that he called only one time to the business.
